Police Grievances.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "KARNATAKA,"

SIR,—The Police arrangements made by Mr. R. Shama Rao, District Superintendent of Police, in connection with the birthday procession of H. H. the Maharaja were highly satisfactory and everything went on smoothly. The District Superintendent of Police who is in charge of the City appreciated the work of the city Police, who in their turn expressed how pleasant it would be if their Superintendent Mr. Mekhri also appreciated their work and respected their feelings. It is a well-known maxim that a house divided against itself cannot stand long. The Government would save a lot of money if the city and the District are managed by only one capable Superintendent who could maintain an efficient Police discipline.

In this connection, another sorrowful fact is to be brought to the notice of our beloved Maharaja and popular Dewan. During the Durbar festivities, many constables are deputed from Taluqs on special duty and they are given daily allowance of anna 1 and 6 p. (a grand sum indeed to maintain a human being!) Even Daffedars are paid only this poor stipend. During the regime of Mr. L. Krishna Rao, the Constables and Daffedars who came on special duty when Lord Curzon visited India in 1900, were fed so long as they remained in Bangalore on duty. In these hard days, for a constable & a Daffedar to live on A. 1-6 a day when Assistant Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners want 5 or 6 rupees a day, would be really a very great hardship. When the officers and other dignitaries of the State are very sumptuously fed, is it not heart-rending to see a poor Constable who is to toil the whole day waiting upon these gentlemen, actually starving for want of sufficient food? According to our sacred Shastras, cruelty is the greatest of sins. What greater himsa is there in the world than starving a fellow-creature, simply because his social status is low, but at the same time extracting as much work as possible from him?

The remedy for this lies in either increasing their daily allowance to at least as. 6 or making satisfactory arrangements for their meals during their stay in Mysore or on special duty. Hundreds of our fellow-men who are working as constables would bless His Highness on that happy occasion if either of these proposals is sanctioned. We trust that our sympathetic Dewan whose aim is to increase the happiness of his people whether rich or poor would make some arrangements after consulting the I. G. of Police who would certainly do his best to lessen the misery of these low paid poor human beings.

It is strange to see that, though all the Police Inspectors residing in the city of Mysore are invited to the Durbar, they are not invited for State dinners. To include them in some functions and to exclude them from some others would not look nice and it is hoped that this defect will also be remedied.

According to this article police constables get a daily allowance of 3 as if more than one province is to be travelled over & 2 as if only a single province is to be travelled over. According to exception (a) to that article Assistant Superintendents of Police & Constables deputed to certain provinces get 8 as & 6 as. No such exception seems to have been in the case of Bombay.

Subject:—

Question of enhancing the rates of daily allowance admissible to police constables.

The attention of Government has been drawn to an article under the heading " Police grievances " in the Karnataka dated July 14, 1915 wherein it is represented that the rates of daily allowance allowed at present to police constable is insufficient. Along with other menial servants, police constables get under article 588 (b) Mysore Service Regulation a daily allowance equal to 3/10th of their pay subject to a minimum of two annas per diem if their pay exceeds Rs.8 and an anna and a half per diem if their pay is Rs.8 or less. There is little doubt that the rate now allowed is insufficient and the Retrenchment Committee while submitting their recommendations for the general revision of travelling allowance rules and rates recommended that in the case of menial servants, the daily allowance should be fixed at 3 annas in the case of those getting pay of Rs.12 and above and at 2 annas in the case of others. The Financial Secretary who was consulted in the matter was of opinion that the rates recommended by the Rentranchment Committee may be given effect to at once. This view has been accepted by the Council.

H. Manjundayya

Dated. 20/1/16 First Member of Council.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith the 'Final Note' of the First Member on the subject of enhancing the rate of daily allowances allowed to menial servants. As recommended by the Financial Secretary and agreed to by the Council, the daily allowance admissible to menial servants may be fixed at 3 annas for those drawing a salary of Rs.12/- per mensem and upwards and at 2 annas in the case of others.

2. This is a very desirable move and by sanctioning the expenditure (Rs.4,000 per annum) involved, Government will be helping a very poorly paid and deserving class of Government servants.
